

Slipperfield Holiday Cottages

West Linton Peeblesshire

Slipperfield House and the two cottages are positioned about one and a quarter miles south of West Linton in private grounds of approximately one hundred acres consisting of attractive woodlands and a private loch, situated at the foot of the Pentland Hills. The grounds are entered from the A702 road by a hard-surfaced driveway which leads to the cottages and the owner's house.

The surrounding area is part of Tweeddale and the countryside nearby has been designated an "Area of Great Landscape Value", with its attractive scenery of hills, moorland and reservoirs, which offer an interesting holiday for those seeking a walking holiday, also fishing and horse riding lessons are available nearby.

The location is ideal for touring the Border country (famous for its scenery and history centred around the Border Abbeys and the River Tweed), and the Clyde Valley area, which is Scotland's prime fruit growing area. It is approximately 18 miles from Princes Street, Edinburgh, an easy drive, which makes it convenient for the many attractions in Edinburgh and for The Edinburgh Festival.

This is an excellent centre for golfers with two 18-hole courses at West Linton, and a number of other golf courses within an hour's drive. There are postal and shopping services available in the village with a pub open for meals, and also an excellent restaurant with restricted opening hours. A bus service operates to and from Edinburgh on the A702 but a car is necessary to take full advantage of all the facilities in the area.

Many of our visitors return more than once each year, there is so much to do and to see in the area and convenient for visiting families and friends. There are many interesting events during the year in the Borders and Edinburgh, and the cottages are also well equipped with Satellite TV, free Wi-Fi, games and books for those who wish to have a complete rest in comfort.

We are able to arrange for the purchasing of supplies, groceries, milk etc., in advance of your holiday, if you so wish, so that these will be ready for your arrival. The owners are always willing to assist with any queries which you may have during your stay, and extend a very warm welcome to you.

Although there is no formal garden, America Cottage is set in the owner's grounds and there is plenty of space to sit outside and for car parking. A barbecue is provided and charcoal can be bought from the owners. The countryside is literally on your doorstep. This cottage is ideal for those who love wildlife, peace, tranquillity and seclusion. It is also perfect for families and offers a little more space than Loch Cottage, with the garden being perfect for the family when the weather permits.

Loch Cottage (sleeps 4)

Loch Cottage was built during the 19th century as a Gamekeeper's cottage on a local country estate. In 1929 Slipperfield House was built onto the cottage and Loch Cottage has been modernised, furnished and equipped to a high standard. It looks over Slipperfield Loch (7 acres) and commands a beautiful view, especially from April to June when the daffodils and rhododendrons around the loch are normally at their best.

The front porch of the cottage leads into the sitting room/dining area and from here there is a door into the lower bedroom. There is a staircase leading from the sitting room to the upstairs bedroom. A short passage also leads from the sitting room to the bathroom and kitchen. The downstairs bedroom has twin beds, 6ft.3ins. long and 3ft. wide. The upstairs bedroom has a double bed which is 4'6" wide and 6'3ins. long providing sleeping accommodation for 4 people in total for the cottage. All beds have electric blankets. Bed linen and towels are supplied free, and a cot and high chair can be provided for a small extra charge – see booking form.

For the open fire in the sitting room coal is provided free of charge. The sitting room and bedrooms are fully carpeted, and the bathroom and kitchenette have a coloured bathroom suite and a new Howden kitchen. The water, supplied from the local mains supply, is heated by an electric immerser and there is also a back boiler on the sitting room fire. Loch Cottage has a colour digital satellite T.V., video recorder, DVD player (a varied supply of videos/DVDs provided), hi-fi unit, free wi-fi, refrigerator, food mixer, toaster, electric kettle, built-in oven and separate hob unit, microwave oven and clothes washing/drying machine and a trouser press. There is a payphone in the sitting room. Oil fired central heating has been installed in the cottage. There is an electricity meter in the cottage and a meter for the central heating oil usage which are both read at the start and completion of the holiday and charged for accordingly (not for profit). There is a supply of books and games for children and adults. A barbeque is available for use and charcoal can be bought from the Kilpatrick household.

This is an ideal cottage for those who wish a comfortable holiday in a very attractive setting. It has been home to honeymooners, family reunions, surprise birthday celebrations, and long summer holidays. There is ample car parking space nearby. Although Loch Cottage is attached to the owner's house, there is no access between the two. We would not recommend Loch Cottage for very young children because of the close proximity to the loch. The stairs to the upstairs bedroom are steep but fully carpeted.

Things to Do

Fishing Slipperfield Loch, which is part of the property on which the cottages are situated, has in the past proved to be an excellent fishery. However over the last few years the wildlife in the area, particularly otters and ospreys, have inflicted very serious damage to our trout stocks. These creatures have been most welcome here and are beautiful to watch, but the situation has become so serious that we have decided to cease the fishing meanwhile apart from the month of June, but we can advise on other fisheries nearby:- If you wish to fish in the River Tweed (salmon and trout) you can get details of availability for salmon fishing on www.fishtweed.co.uk which will give updates of river levels, catches, availability and online booking. Alternatively telephone 01573 470612 for booking or 01573 410246 for weekly reports and prospects.

Edinburgh Edinburgh, with the Castle, Royal Mile, Holyrood Palace and Queen's Gallery, Scottish Parliament building, and Our Dynamic Earth, a wonderful experience going back to Creation. Edinburgh's Botanic Gardens, very bottom of Hanover Street turn left; the Georgian House 28 Charlotte Square owned by the National Trust for Scotland. There are wonderful shops from Valvona and Croalla, renowned for its Italian foods, meats, cheeses, wines, (Elm Row top of Leith Walk), also they have a café/restaurant round the corner from Harvey Nichols (St. Andrew Square, just beside the main bus terminus.) Don't forget the Edinburgh Festival in August, with the famous Tattoo, and Hogmanay at New Year. The Royal Yacht Britannia down beside Ocean Terminal is a popular attraction.

Nearby Attractions It is a short drive to visit Rosslyn Chapel at Roslin (The da Vinci Code), Hopetoun House, South Queensferry for a Garden Centre experience and historic house. Peebles is the county town - a wonderful selection of shops, theatre, and the now famous Glentress mountain bike venue, just south of Peebles where you can also walk for miles, (dogs too) - bike runs are amazing but challenging; Kailizie (pronounced Kaylie) Gardens just outside Peebles down the south of the River Tweed, with its popular restaurant, mini-golf, fishing for learners, and an Osprey camera from May onwards. Beyond Kailzie lies Traquair House, the oldest inhabited house in Scotland, with a maze, brewery, and venue for excellent festivals during the year (e.g. Easter Day egg extravaganza). Nearby Biggar which has the Moat Children's Boating Park, famous Children's Puppet Theatre, a really marvellous local museum, and unique old fashioned town atmosphere, plus the best ice cream in Scotland. (Excellent vet practices too). Outside these main centres there is the River Tweed, (woollen mill shops), the Clyde Valley (garden centres to the wholesale trade worth visiting); East Lothian for beaches at Gullane and North Berwick; also Concorde at the Museum of Flight, East Fortune.

Days Out Have a day out in Fife, St. Andrews and the smaller fishing villages such as Anstruther, Crail and Pittenweim.
